Significant changes to "OLD" provisions in law affect how your school district approaches teacher and principal evaluations and the discipline of tenured teachers and administrators.

Learn how "NEW" provisions, regulations and court rulings affect the governance and operation of your schools.

Leave with the essential information you'll need for meeting these new legal requirements.

Application for 4 CLE Credits Pending
WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- School Board Members
- Superintendents
- Negotiators
- School Attorneys
- School Administrators
- School Business Officials

WHY ATTEND?

- Find out how this past year’s new laws and regulations, court decisions and other rulings have changed your district’s legal responsibilities.
- Learn about the new rules that apply to teacher and principal evaluations and explore what those new rules mean for your district.
- Hear about current patterns in teacher contracts in your region and across the state.
- Discover how new procedures for the discipline of tenured teachers and administrators affect your district’s approach to such proceedings.
