

SCHOOL LAW SEMINAR

Who Should Attend?

- School Board Members
- School Attorneys
- Superintendents
- Building Administrators

Why Attend?

You'll bring back to your district essential legal and practical information such as:

- Keeping students and staff safe from violent attacks while at school
- How to manage political speech activities on school grounds
- What districts can do better to prevent, identify, investigate and resolve incidents of sexual harassment of staff
- Trending and emerging employment issues, both in the bargaining and non-bargaining arenas
- Deciding whether to settle or litigate special education disputes

Plus get an overview of new and pending laws and regulations, recent court decisions and other rulings.

6.5 CLE CREDITS

New York State Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Credits: 6.5 hours in the area of Professional Practice. Course content is appropriate for newly admitted attorneys and experienced attorneys.

Important Notice: Partial credit for program segments is not allowed. Under the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board Regulations and Guidelines, attendees at CLE programs cannot receive MCLE credit for a program segment unless they are present for the entire segment. Persons who arrive late, depart early, or are absent for any portion of the segment will not receive credit for that segment.

Tuition Assistance: Application for tuition assistance to attend this program may be made based on financial hardship. Under that policy, an applicant who has a genuine financial hardship may apply in writing, no later than five working days prior to the program, explaining the basis of his/her hardship and, if approved, may receive tuition assistance, depending upon the circumstances. For more details, please contact Jay Worona, New York State School Boards Association, at 518-783-0200 or 800-342-3360, or by email at jay.worona@nyssba.org.

Howard Friedman, Esq., General Counsel, NYC Department of Education

8:15 – 9:30 a.m.

School Safety – A World Turned Upside Down

Sadly there are no guarantees that will keep school children and staff safe from a violent attack while at school. Recent events again have districts re-examining what they can do better to prevent and respond to such an event. From community engagement, security measures and training to mental health, interagency collaboration and law enforcement partnerships, join a discussion of the real life and legal issues involved.

Speakers: Alison B. Bianchi, Esq., Counsel and Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs, NYS Education Department, Bryan Vossekuil, President The Metis Group, Inc.; Steven E. Skrynecki, Chief of Police, South Hampton, Police Department; and Elise Cappella, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Applied Psychology, New York University

Moderator: Jay Worona, Esq., Deputy Executive Director & General Counsel, NYSSBA

9:30 – 9:45 a.m. • BREAK

9:45 – 10:40 a.m.

Political Discourse in Public Schools – Complex Issues without Simple Rules

Public schools can limit the exercise of free speech rights within their buildings and grounds, including expressions of political solidarity. But what if school officials want to allow or even engage in such speech? When and what limitations might be appropriate? To whom would they apply? Understand better the legal issues involved.

Moderator: Thomas M. Volz, Esq., Law Offices of Thomas M. Volz, PLLC

10:40 – 11:30 a.m.

Sexual Harassment of Staff – What Every School Board Needs to Know

The prohibition against sexual harassment in the workplace is not new. But the #MeToo Movement shows work still needs to be done in this area. Find out if your policies and practices adequately protect both your district and its staff. Reassess your prevention, identification, investigation and resolution processes.

Speakers: Frank W. Miller, Esq., The Frank W. Miller Law Firm, and Beth A. Bourassa, Esq., Partner, Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP

Moderator: Jeffrey F. Swiatek, Esq., Partner, Hodgson Russ LLP

11:30 a.m. – Noon

School Law: A Year in Review Part I – New Laws and Regulations

School district responsibilities are continuously evolving. Learn how this year's actions by the Legislature and the State Education Department have transformed those obligations.

Speaker: Kimberly A. Fanniff, Esq., Senior Staff Counsel, NYSSBA

Noon – 1:30 p.m. • LUNCH (ON YOUR OWN)

1:30 – 2:20 p.m.

Employment Law – Some Bargaining and Non-Bargaining Issues

Discuss the impact of the recent Supreme Court's agency shop decision on your district. Review the various bargaining implications of New York's ESSA Plan. Hear about non-bargaining employment issues you should be aware of.

Speakers: John H. Gross, Esq., Partner, Ingerman Smith, LLP; Gregory J. Guercio, Esq., Partner, Guercio & Guercio, LLP; and Jeffrey D. Honeywell, Esq., Honeywell Law Firm PLLC

Moderator: Eugene R. Barnosky, Esq., Partner, Lamb & Barnosky, LLP

2:20 – 2:35 p.m. • BREAK

2:35 – 3:30 p.m.

Special Education Disputes – Litigate or Settle: That is the Question

It is not always easy to resolve parental issues over special education services. Should you litigate all disputes? When should you settle? Learn about the factors you need to consider when making that decision.

Speakers: Laura J. Granelli, Esq., Partner, Jaspian Schlesinger LLP and Beth L. Sims, Esq., Partner, Shaw, Perelson, May & Lambert, LLP

Moderator: Edward J. Sarzynski, Esq., Of Counsel, Hogan, Sarzynski, Lynch, DeWind & Gregory, LLP
