

Real Expertise

“With the complexity of state aid, no school district can be confident that they have collected all of the aid to which they are entitled. In these tough economic times, we need every dollar that we can get. School Aid Specialists are the experts. They find aid where no one else knows to look. I can recommend them without reservation.”

-John D. Abbott, Deputy Superintendent, East Irondequoit Central School District and Monroe 2 BOCES board member

Real Results

“School Aid Specialists has maximized and recovered aid for the taxpayers of our district. Their level of knowledge and expertise in the fields of State Aid and Medicaid are unmatched. They are, without a doubt, our “go to” experts. In fields as complex and deeply rooted in legislation and formulas that never see the light of day, having the resources of School Aid Specialists available to us, gives us the knowledge that we are achieving and receiving the maximum federal and state dollars available to our District.”

-Laura A. Newman, Asst. Supt. For Business, Commack Union Free Schools

School Aid Specialists

THE REVENUE EXPERTS

School Aid Specialists (SAS) is a statewide consulting firm with over 75 years of combined experience. Our unique knowledge honed from working in the New York State Legislature, Questar III BOCES and decades as chief financial officers, will assure a thorough review of the myriad revenue sources available to schools.

Our services can assure your communities that all possible revenue has been maximized to fund the programs that serve your students.

There are over 85 unique data items that impact the amount of state aid your district receives. We review all these sources, whether attendance, special education, financial or operational.

While our reviews look at current and prior year's data, our findings often lead to increased funding streams years into the future.

If SAS does not find additional revenue for the district, the State Aid Review service is free.
